

Testimony of Vercina “Tina” Burton

My name is Vercina “Tina” Burton and I have been employed at Value City on Miles Avenue in Cleveland for almost 26 years. I work full-time in the receiving department.

During the last 26 years I have seen many changes including store ownership.

A former co-worker of mine for about 5 years went to work at the Severance Wal-Mart a few years ago. Unfortunately, her experience at Wal-Mart was not a good one. Quickly, she discovered that the benefits she had were terrible. Her healthcare coverage, which she paid for, didn’t even cover her kids. The management team would hold things against her and others if they either called off, or were off for the day and asked to come in but refused. Finally, after 2 long years, she quit because she was so frustrated with the way she was treated by Wal-Mart.
